

Getting Street Smart©

Designed to educate adults on:

- Addiction as disease
- Signs and symptoms of drug use
- Gateway drugs
- Dangers of non-prescription and prescription drugs
- Current street drugs
- How drugs are used
- What drugs look like
- Short and long term effects of drugs
- What to do if you suspect your child is using drugs
- Prevention techniques

Topics Discussed

Inhalants	Alcohol	Marijuana
Jimsonweed	Mushrooms	Methamphetamine
Cocaine	Heroin	PMA
GHB	Rohypnol	Ketamine
LSD	Raves	Prescription drugs
Over the counter drugs	Steroids

Expected Outcomes:

- Understand addiction as a disease
- Increased knowledge of street drugs
- Develop prevention skills in dealing with children and substance abuse
- Expand knowledge on drug task force operations
- Increase awareness of sources of illicit drugs
- Heightened awareness of the dangers of Internet usage by children and young adults
- A deeper understanding of alcohol use by minors and the laws

Debra Baker, Prevention Specialist, will provide detailed information along with tips on how to keep youth drug free. The PowerPoint presentation contains detailed pictures and critical information about each drug.

This program can be adapted to fit your needs. To schedule a “Getting Street Smart” program please contact us.